

Users should be advised that by downloading and using the BofA Insight Mobile App, you acknowledge the risks of installing and operating a banking application. Users should not install the BofA Insight Mobile App on any compromised (E.g. Jailbroken or Rooted) mobile device and should continue to properly maintain all necessary updates to the operating system of the mobile device.

Certain features of the BofA Insight Mobile App are optional and will require that you provide explicit permission via your mobile operating system. Examples include but not limited to receiving push notifications related to the BofA Insight App, using your device biometrics functionality for alternative sign in, using your location and Bluetooth to ensure security of your account, using your contacts to help create meetings, using camera, microphone and media library for creating media content related to BofA Insight App and speech recognition to support accessibility.

"The following Open Source Software has been used in development of BofA Insight Mobile. View the license agreements for more information."

<https://opensource.org/licenses/Apache-2.0>

<https://opensource.org/licenses/MIT>

Online Privacy Notice